

Alewives... Restore the old tradition.

By Aaron Benner

Tradition means the tradition of the fish returning every Spring to run into the Marsh and the people that used to catch them. I think traditions are important to keep because traditions keep our town together. Alewives in St George are a natural resource tradition.